Floor Exercise Worksheet. Write a series in the lines provided below and provide how much bonus is derived in that entire series by indicating the skill assignment letter and the points they are worth when connected. See the example below. Diagram your floor pattern in the square indicating the series by #.

1. Round-off + Flip Flop + Layout Double Full (2/1) + punch front
   (for a series done in KIN 105e)

   B + C + E + C = 0.9 in bonus

   .1 .4 .4

1. ________________________________________________________________________________
2. ________________________________________________________________________________
3. ________________________________________________________________________________
4. ________________________________________________________________________________
5. ________________________________________________________________________________
6. ________________________________________________________________________________
7. ________________________________________________________________________________