Overview of Discrimination

Notes

Definition of Labor Market Discrimination

• The Valuation in the Labor Market of Personal Characteristics of Workers that are Unrelated to Productivity

Economic Theories of Discrimination

• Pure Discrimination
  – Based on personal prejudice ("taste for discrimination")
• Occupational Segregation
• Statistical Discrimination
  – Employers use personal characteristics as signal of productivity
  – Not necessarily rooted in personal prejudice