Final exam

- This room, Monday 5/02, 3-5pm
- 75 points
  - 30-35 points from exams 1 and 2
    - Questions will be similar but not identical
    - Short-answer there would be multiple-choice here
  - Six short-answer questions (12 points)
    - All on new material

Short-answer questions

- Representativeness and availability heuristics
  - Be able to define them (definitions from class)
  - Be able to apply them to an example
- Anchoring heuristic and loss aversion bias
  - Be able to apply them to an example
- Regression to the mean
  - Be able to recognize a situation in which it can explain people getting better or worse

Short-answer questions

- Fatal Distraction article (infant hyperthermia)
  - Lyn Balfour case
  - “Delivery made” – interpret as source confusion
  - Absence of diaper bag as Stroop stimulus
    - Identify a automatic and non-automatic process

Exam

- Not on exam:
  - Spatial Images and Visual Images (pp. 351-352)
  - Long-Term Visual Memory (pp. 361-end)

Exam

- Study guide for multiple-choice questions:
  - Will be posted later today
  - Will cover only the new material
  - Guide is partial; there will be some other questions, from the assigned readings or class