Text: James & Gilliland

1. When a crisis worker is working with a battered woman, what should the worker’s first (primary, main) goal be?

2. Most group treatment programs for batterers have four major purposes. Please list them.

3. The authors characterized confrontation as “probably the most potent and dangerous weapon the worker has.” They gave two reasons why strenuously confronting a resisting and denying client in a group session would be questionable. Please list the reasons.

Class Notes

4. The Duty to Warn outlined in the Tarasoff decision has three preconditions. Please list them.
