1. In the expression topsy-turvy, what exactly is meant by turvy?
   Probably from an obsolete English word, terve, to turn upside down.

2. Why are there eleven teams in the Big Ten?
   When it was founded in 1895, there were only seven teams. There weren't ten teams until 1912. Membership dropped to nine in 1946 when the University of Chicago withdrew. State joined in 1949, bringing the number back up to ten. In 1990, Penn State joined the conference and there have been eleven teams in the Big Ten ever since. As to why, heck, I don't know.

3. What exactly is a wingding?
   A wild, lively, or lavish party, according to my dictionary.

Of course, none of these should be handed in.

HAVE A GREAT BREAK
