1. Both the serious violent juvenile offender and the estranged violent juvenile offender are likely to react to stress in different ways that are nonetheless self-defeating.
   Describe how a serious violent juvenile offender is likely to respond to stress and how an estranged violent juvenile offender is likely to respond to stress.

2. When the death of a student is due to suicide, should a school hold a large scale memorial to honor the deceased and help resolve grief? Give the reason for your answer.

3. Please list the three elements that make up the Stockholm syndrome.