SW 841:
Generalist Social Work Practice II
Week 5: Study Questions

§ Please submit answers to the Class List [timone@list.msu.edu].
§ Discuss your answer and classmates’ answers.

Text: Corey, Corey, & Callanan

1. Corey, Corey, & Callanan suggested an eight step approach to making ethical decisions. Please list these eight steps as they are written in the text.

1.01. ___________________________________________________________________
1.02. ___________________________________________________________________
1.03. ___________________________________________________________________
1.04. ___________________________________________________________________
1.05. ___________________________________________________________________
1.06. ___________________________________________________________________
1.07. ___________________________________________________________________
1.08. ___________________________________________________________________

2. _____________ is the process whereby clients place past feelings or attitudes they had toward significant people in their lives onto their therapist.
   • Countertransference.
   • Mirroring.
   • Projection.
   • Sublimation.
   • Transference.

3. Please list and define the four elements that make up malpractice.

3.01. Name: _______________________________________________________________
     Definition: ___________________________________________________________
     ____________________________________________________________________

3.02. Name: ________________________
     Definition: ___________________________________________________________
     ____________________________________________________________________

3.03. Name: ________________________
     Definition: ___________________________________________________________
     ____________________________________________________________________

3.04. Name: ________________________
     Definition: ___________________________________________________________
     ____________________________________________________________________
4. A culturally encapsulated counselor is defined by which one of the following?
   - a worker and client who belong to different cultural groups.
   - defining reality according to one set of cultural assumptions.
   - defining reality according to the client’s reality.
   - evaluating other viewpoints and making attempts to accommodate the behavior of others.
   - showing sensitivity to cultural variations among individuals.

   defining reality according to one set of cultural assumptions

5. The authors listed seven situations that abrogate privileged communication. Please list them as they are stated in the text.
   5.01. __________________________________________________________________
   5.02. __________________________________________________________________
   5.03. __________________________________________________________________
   5.04. __________________________________________________________________
   5.05. __________________________________________________________________
   5.06. __________________________________________________________________
   5.07. __________________________________________________________________

6. The NASW Code of Ethics outlines six core values and their associated ethical principles. Please list them as stated.
   6.01. Value: ______________________________________________________________
         Principle: ____________________________________________________________
   6.02. Value: ______________________________________________________________
         Principle: ____________________________________________________________
   6.03. Value: ______________________________________________________________
         Principle: ____________________________________________________________
   6.04. Value: ______________________________________________________________
         Principle: ____________________________________________________________
   6.05. Value: ______________________________________________________________
         Principle: ____________________________________________________________
   6.06. Value: ______________________________________________________________
         Principle: ____________________________________________________________