Presentation details and guidelines (Fall 2013)

- You are competing for REAL money to be used towards your productions
  First Prize: $350
  Second Prize: $250
  Third Prize: $175
  Fourth Prize: $125

- Each group gets 15 minutes to present, followed by questions from the reviewers for about 10 minutes. Your teaser will be a part of your presentation. If you near the end of your appropriated time, you will get a one-minute warning.

- Here is the order of the presentations:
  1. Bathroom stall
  2. Craigslist
  3. Horror mockumentary
  4. Music Video

- You are presenting your proposal to industry professionals and experienced producers. Be ready for difficult questions. Do not try to bluff, accept a good suggestion and try to build on that.

- Dress appropriately. (Business attire highly recommended)

- Prepare a power point/ keynote presentation. Load and test the presentation and the teaser on the laptop, before class begins.

- Each group member has to play an active role in the presentation.

- If appropriate, distribute handouts to the audience before you start your presentation.

- Provide an outline of your project assuming that the audience has no previous knowledge of the subject.

- Explain how you will benefit by undertaking this project.

- Be organized. (Have a printed copy of your presentation for reference)

- Deliver your presentation confidently. Rehearse and time yourself.

- Pay attention to the words, “like”, “you know”, “etc”. Frequent use of such words or phrases derails the presentation.

Past students have worked really hard on their proposals and used them as a part of their portfolio.

Goodluck and work hard!!
