NEW SEMINAR SERIES

Sustainable Development: Concepts & Practices

SPONSORED BY:
SCHOOL OF PLANNING, DESIGN, & CONSTRUCTION

International Center, Food Court Room C @ Noon

Spring Semester Colloquies for faculty, students, & interested practitioners

Exploring trends and emerging issues in our built environment, The School of Planning, Design, and Construction at MSU offers a spring seminar series. The series is sponsored by MSU’s:

Building and Construction Management Program, Community and Economic Development Program; Interior Design, Landscape Architecture, Urban and Regional Planning, and the Office of Campus Sustainability

January 20: Sustainable Design Curriculum in Higher Education
Feb. 10: Concepts & Practices of Sustainable Development in Interior Design
March 16: Concepts & Practices of Sustainable Development in Landscape Architecture
April 14: Concepts & Practices of Sustainable Development in Building Construction Management
April 28: Concepts & Practices of Sustainable Development in Community & Economic Development

For more information call: (517) 353-9555