10

MOST POPULAR POSSESSIONS

50 seniors were asked which items they treasured the most.

1. Favorite pictures
2. The driver’s first new or used car
3. Stuffed animals
4. Musical instruments
5. Baby blanket
6. Childhood toys
7. New or inherited jewelry
8. Childhood teddy bear
9. Various religious items or symbols
10. Broken-in slippers

Concentrating on the rhythm, senior Ian Rosa plays his drums during one of his many practices. This was Rosa’s third year playing the drums as a member of the Ambassadors. Rosa also played his set for his church. “My drums are my most prized possession,” Rosa said. “Since I play the drums so often, I need a quality drum set. I did various jobs to accumulate the $2000 needed to purchase them.”

ASHLEY MIKULENAS

“Friends of my parents were visiting us in California when I was six months old and they brought me a doll named Candy. I lost her about a month ago and it was the most horrible experience I’ve ever had. When I found her, I was overjoyed and hysterical. I was laughing and crying at the same time.”

Photo by Martha Brooks

Pressed for Submission

Andrew Beck
Amanda Behring
Rachel Berent
Lauren Bloom

Amanda Boilore
Katie Bradley
Jill Broom
Dane Brown

P 90-1
w8.10x10.10
P 90-2
w8.10x10.10
P 90-3
w8.10x10.10
P 90-4
w8.10x10.10
P 90-5
w8.10x10.10
P 90-6
w8.10x10.10
P 90-7
w8.10x10.10

Job No.: 43360
Page No. 90

School Name: Fenton High School

Edge of page is the inside edge of gray border. Bleed elements should extend to the outside edge of gray border. School name and job number should be entered on the master pages.

Spec. Instr.

PFS Date: 02/03/2003  Time: 16:22 Arial Narrow, Albertus Extra Bold GTS was run also.
From CDs to jewelry and everything in between, treasured items appear in all shapes and sizes

“"If my house was burning down I’d get my CDs first. I use music in just about everything I do," senior Anna Connor said. “They come with me everywhere, even to school. It would take a long time to get all those CDs back and it’d be very expensive. I have more than 100 of them.”

Photo by Martha Brooks

“My grandma gave me a teddy bear when I was a baby. A short time later she died, so it is special to me,” senior Kristina Rahn said. “When I was little I used to bump my head on my crib and cry a lot, so my mom would wave it around near my face and then I would stop, look at it and laugh.”

Photo by Kelsey Maniez

“My grandpa gave me a clown the day I was born,” senior Arthur Smith said. “It’s still in its box in my closet, though, for a couple reasons. It used to scare me when I was little from watching too much Puppet Master, and it doesn’t match the colors in my room because it’s red, white and blue.”

Photo by Pam Bunka

“I have a charm bracelet that has profiles of all my Busia’s (grandma’s) children and grandchildren,” senior Rachel Berent said. “It has their names and birthdates on it. My Busia made sure she gave it to me before she died so I keep it.”

Photo by Chelsea Grossmann

Deanna Brown
Morgan Brown
Brea Browning
John Bunka

Steven Burgess
Jacqueline Burk
Sarah Cameron
Nicholas Ceresia