China Adventure
at Michigan State University

June 22 – July 12, 2008

Experience the wonder of Chinese history and culture firsthand with Michigan State University! This exciting new travel program includes a one-week stay on campus, where students will participate in college – level seminars on Chinese culture, language, history, and music.

In addition, students in the China Adventure program will spend two weeks abroad in China. This is a two-week, MSU-faculty led learning experience that will enable students to truly experience what they have learned about in the classroom. The travel portion will be led by the same faculty as the on-campus seminar. This is an outstanding and unique opportunity to travel to a fascinating country that is rapidly increasing in importance on the international level.
