January 26, 2009

Business people

Arrivals

• Ruben Derderian has joined the Michigan State University Product Center for Agriculture and Natural Resources as associate director.

• Beth Bacon has joined Lansing-based Health Care Association of Michigan as vice president of regulatory services.

Honors

• East Lansing-based New Horizons Computer Learning Centers of Michigan has been named one of the top 20 information technology training companies by Cary, N.C.-based TrainingIndustry.com.

Officers and directors

• Lansing-based Hubbard Law Firm PC has elected the following officers for 2009: Michael Woodworth, president and chief executive officer; Andria Ditschman, vice president; and Peter Teholiz, treasurer and secretary.

• Pamela Dausman and Kirsten McNelly have been named shareholders at Lansing law firm Foster, Swift, Collins & Smith PC.

• Dr. James Lloyd, of Okemos, has been named president-elect of the Michigan Veterinary Medical Association in Okemos.

• Pam Ditri, executive director of Burcham Hills Retirement Community of East Lansing, has been appointed to a three-year term on the Michigan Board of Nursing Home Administrators.

• The following have been elected officers of the Capitol Area Municipal Clerks Association: Meridian Township Clerk MaryHelbrecht, president; Lansing City Clerk Chris Swope, vice president; Mason Deputy Clerk Deborah Cwiertniewicz, secretary; Meridian Township Deputy Clerk Joan Horvath, treasurer; Leslie Township Clerk Sheryl Feazel, historian; DeWitt City Clerk Denice Smith, Clinton County director; Benton Township Clerk Martha Halsey, Eaton County director; and East Lansing City Clerk Nicole Evans, Ingham County director.

Etc.

• Brooks McIntosh, Chad Thelen and James Kramek, of Lansing-based Clark Construction Co., have received the LEED accredited professional designation from the U.S. Green Building Council in Washington, D.C.
Business People items must be submitted by 5 p.m. Monday a week before publication. Information must be resubmitted for each week it's to be published. Send to Business Calendar, Lansing State Journal, 120 E. Lenawee St., Lansing, MI 48919; fax 377-1298; e-mail business@lsj.com.