

Cedar Waxwing (l) and Hermit Thrush (r)

These two birds were taken from the Laurel Wreath Series published in the Detroit News from June-August of 1935.

It was originally published as a series of patterns for Florence LaGanke's Nancy Page Club column in 1934. It is unknown how many other papers printed this series.

For more free patterns go to:
<http://quiltdoctor.blogspot.com/>
© 2010 by Beth Donaldson