2nd Great Lakes Political Economy Theory Conference

Saturday, September 8th
Michigan State University, East Lansing.

Location: Koo Conference Room. Marshall-Adams Hall Room 5A.

Schedule:
8.55am – 9.10am. Welcome and registration.

10.50am – 11.00am. Coffee break.

12.40pm – 2.10pm. Lunch at Phillips Hall (0.3 miles from Koo Room).

3.50pm – 4.10pm. Coffee break.

5.45pm. Dinner for out-of-state participants.

Organizing Committee: Jon X. Eguia (Michigan State) and Christian Cox (student co-organizer, MSU).

The conference is funded by the Department of Economics, by the Department of Political Science, and by the College of Social Sciences at Michigan State University.
Participants:

1  Peter Buisseret, U. Chicago.
2  Wiola Dziuda, U. Chicago.
3  Georgy Egorov, Northwestern U.
4  Jean G. Forand, U. Waterloo.
5  Leyla Karakas, U. Syracuse.
6  Stephan Krasa, U. Illinois.
7  Davin Raiha, U. Western Ontario.
8  Renee Bowen, U.C. San Diego.
9  Ali Cirone, Cornell U.
10 Christian Cox, Michigan State U.
11 Carlo Prato, Columbia U.
12 Arturas Rozenas, New York U.
13 Konstantin Sonin, U. Chicago.
15 Chris Cotton, Queen’s U.
16 Valerio Dotti, Washington U. St. Louis.
17 Jean E. de Bettignies, Queen’s U.
18 Jon X. Eguia, Michigan State U.
19 Maria Gallego, Wilfried Lauriel U.
20 Johanna Goertz, U of Guelph.
21 Jin Yeub Kim, U. Nebraska.
22 Devashish Mitra, U. Syracuse.
23 Al Slivinski, U. Western Ontario.
24 Zijian Qi, Michigan State U.
25 Gergely Ujhely, U. Houston.

Sessions will also be open to other Michigan State U. and U. Michigan faculty and PhD students, up to capacity of the Koo conference room (45 people).