The Learned Intermediary Doctrine: Striking a Balance Between Liability for Manufacturers and Physicians in the Changing Arenas of Managed Health Care, the Practice of Medicine and Direct-to-Consumer Pharmaceutical Promotion of Oral Contraceptives
By Jill Nagy

Addressing Genetic Predisposition for Alcoholism in Criminal Sentencing Proceedings
By Tyng Loh

The Fetus and the Drug Addicted Mother: Whose Rights Should Prevail?
By Samantha Weyrauch

Denial of Staff Privileges to Physicians: Can Hospitals Be Held Accountable?
By Richard J. Zecchino