1. Chomsky

   • What is E-language? Can you give an example?

   • What is I-language?

   • What for Chomsky is language? How might one study it?

2. Lewis

   • What are languages, according to his thesis?

   • What is language, according to his antithesis?

   • What is his synthesis? That is, how do languages and language relate?

3. Comparison

   • Which of these two approaches strikes you as better, and why?
