In groups, review the examples below, sort them so that like are classified with like, and then provide a few characteristics of the data that justify your classification.

1. Those spots mean measles.
2. Smoke means fire.
3. You’re mean.
4. The recent budget means that we shall have a hard year.
5. Those three rings on the bell mean that the bus is full.
7. He meant by that remark to warn you of your impending doom.
8. That word means “everywhere”.
9. I mean, come on. Come on!
10. I don’t know what those marks mean. Perhaps they were put there by the wind and don't mean anything at all?