We will proceed through Crosby & Schaeffer’s text at the rate of one chapter per week. There will be four exams, several quizzes, and a final. Students are expected to attend each class session and to prepare the chapter that is assigned for that day. There are no excused absences; however, if you miss an exam due to illness, band trip, campus visit, job interview, etc., a make-up can be arranged, provided you submit suitable documentation. There will be no make-up quizzes. Students who have a 4.0 at the end of the semester are excused from the final.

Texts:
An Introduction to Greek, Henry Lamar Crosby and John Nevin Schaeffer (required)
Greek Paradigm Handbook, by Erikk Geannikis, Andrew Romiti, P.T. Wilford (recommended)
