

The Air Force values their Airmen and women and wants them to succeed by making education accessible, affordable, and achievable.

When you enlist in the Air Force, you are automatically enrolled in the Community College of the Air Force (CCAF), the largest community college in the world, which allows you to earn an associate of applied science degree in one of its 67 degree programs from a regionally accredited institution.

Serve your country and further your education by enlisting in the Air Force today!
